

Love in a Box

words and music ©2005 Marius McKee

I hide my love, I hide it way on down I hide my love, deep underground
I lock my love away, where no one else can see You must do the same, do the same as me...

refrain:

But now and again I can set my love free
Now and again I can let my heart beat Until that day comes I must hide my jealous mind It's tearing up my heart, and peace I cannot find I'm just so scared of losing all your love I cannot sleep, until I hold your heart

refrain:

Now I find, you on my mind
I can only say I love you

In the darkest night of my life,
I lie and think of you I cannot own all of the little things that you do So I wait until the dawn, the next time I can call I hope I can wait that long, before call you at all

refrain:
