

Something Special

words and music ©2005 Marius McKee

Is it the way you caught my eye?
Is it Chanel No. 5?
Or is it just the way you sigh?
Yeah maybe it's the booze

But there's something that's a happening,
over which I have no control...
And if I'm looking for a reason,
there's something special about you.

Is it the way you wear your hair?
Or is it the clothes you wear?
Is it the way that you stare?
Or is it something that you do?

Can it be that I just like your face?
There's girls like you in every place
But you have a special grace,
yes there's something special about you

refrain:

I'm feeling something special,
I'm feeling something new Something that I can't see
It might mean nothing to you at all
But it sure means something to me

So can you put my mind at rest?
Put my feelings to the test?
Give me your level best,
and tell me something about you?

Do you want to turn me on?
Do you want me to come on?
Can I take you to my home?
To find something special about you?

refrain:

With one more slug I down my drink,
I hope you're as old as I think.
You hold my hand and I go pink,
there's something special about you
Is it the way you hold me tight?
I wanna stay with you tonight
I think it's everything you do,
there's something special about you...
