

Yeah! This is My Heaven

words and music ©2005 Marius McKee

I'm lying in your bed,
Morning sun shining through the window today
I should be getting up for work right now
But I forget the time again

refrain

Yeah this is my heaven
The place where I belong
Yeah this is my heaven
Where I feel so strong

Last night you put the kids to bed
We finished the wine and a bite to eat
You had that look in your eye I recognise Tonight I won't get no sleep

refrain

It's a feeling I get lying in the sand
When the kids are playing in the waves
And I rub the suntan cream in your shoulder blades
And the sun is beating down all day

refrain

Sometimes when you kiss me
And sometimes when you hold me close
I remember the first time I loved you Don't want that feeling to go

refrain
