

Until Now

words and music ©2005 Marius McKee

I've been down a hundred times
I've got up for ninety-nine
Until now

I've listened to your words so wise
That you call love but all are lies
Until now

refrain 1:
But I won't change
And I won't rearrange

I've been sad for many years
And I've cried a thousand tears
Until now

I look down and I can see you
Changing right in front of me
Right now

refrain 1:
But I won't change
And I won't rearrange

I've been sad for many years
And I've cried a thousand tears
Until now

I look down and I can see you
Changing right in front of me
Right now

refrain 1:
You never told me what you wanted
You never told me why
You'll never understand me
Until the day I die

In spite of everything you said
I'll get you right out of my head
Right now

I know I can get on fine,
I'll get up just this one more time
Right now

refrain 2:
